

PAMM TERMS & CONDITIONS

- 1.1. These Percentage Allocation Master Module Regulations (hereinafter referred to as ("PAMM Terms")), jointly with Customer Agreement and/or Terms of Business related to the particular type of account include all the provisions and conditions in respect of PAMM Service (hereinafter referred to as "PAMM Service" or "PAMM" – in respect of the PAMM Service usage by the particular Master and Follower (-s)). Reading and understanding all of the above documents is a mandatory requirement in order to access this service. The Customer's registration as a Master or a Follower will be considered by Trive International Ltd. ("the Company") as official confirmation that all documents were read, understood and accepted.
- 1.2. PAMM is not an asset management tool. It is a technical opportunity for one Customer (hereinafter referred to as "Follower Account Holder - Follower") to get access to the services provided by PAMM through the other Customer (hereinafter referred to as "Master Account Holder - Master") which constitute the possibility to follow Master's trading strategies. Master operates his personal funds through the PAMM, and by the mean of PAMM technology Master's trading strategy is replicated on the Follower's Account.
- 1.3. PAMM technology involves merging of Master's and Follower's funds. These merged funds are devoted by both Master and Follower to be engaged in PAMM. .Such technology is established for the purposes of identical market conditions application while execution of trading signals to all PAMM participants as well as to prevent the funds devoted to be engaged in PAMM to be used for Master's or Follower's trading on their personal Customers Accounts and related margin calculation. Considering MT4 Platform technical and software opportunities certain terms used herein or within the PAMM software may mislead the PAMM participants. For the avoidance of doubts all wording in these PAMM Terms connected with crediting/debiting/depositing/transferring/withdrawing of funds (except for the cases of profit/loss, commissions, penalties or remuneration distribution) shall be interpret as "assignment of funds", "revocation of funds" and "rebalancing" respectively with strict accordance to this clause.
- 1.4. The Follower voluntarily, at his own risk, selects the Master pursuant to a public Master Offer. All decisions regarding acceptance or rejection of the particular Master Offer are of personal matter for each potential Follower and are made without any recommendation/solicitation provided by the Company.
- 1.5. Acceptance of the Master's Offer confirms that the Follower understands and accepts the risks associated with trading in OTC FOREX market on leveraged basis, which has been separately disclosed to him as part of the Company's standard account opening procedure. The Follower hereby agrees and confirms that the Company is not and will not guarantee the recurrence of rates of return that have been made by the Master and the Follower shall not claim any compensation, indemnity or payment from the Company under any name for the Masters Offer accepted by the Follower.
- 1.6. The Master is the only person who can operate the PAMM providing full compliance with these PAMM Terms. The Company will reject all claims issued by Followers in respect to the Master's trades and related activities.
- 1.7. The Follower has no right to any complaints in respect of the trading operations conducted in the PAMM. The Master, according to procedures set by the Company, is the only person authorised to submit a complaint related to any improper performance of Customer Agreement and/or Terms of Business for consideration. The complaint must be submitted in accordance with the respective procedure for handling complaints set forth in complaints policy.
- 1.8. The Company reserves the right to terminate the provision of the PAMM in respect of any Master at any time and upon its sole discretion. The Company may reject any request issued by either Master or Follower or both without any obligation to provide reasons or any clarification for such decision. Such a decision cannot be used or interpret by Customers or any third person as a fact which can harm the Company, its employees, affiliates or owners.

- 1.9. Unless agreed otherwise, all the documents submitted by one party to the other party hereto by any means of delivery will be considered only if there is a possibility of accurate authentication of the sender. These PAMM Terms define the following means of communication:
 - a. Email;
 - b. Internal mailing system of the trading terminal;
 - c. Publications on the PAMM website.
- 1.10. All Trading Reports specifying Master's operations on the PAMM will be published in the PAMM website -> Main Menu -> Follower Section within the intervals determined by the Master.
